Don't you agree that trying to decide on what tattoo to get is extremely difficult?

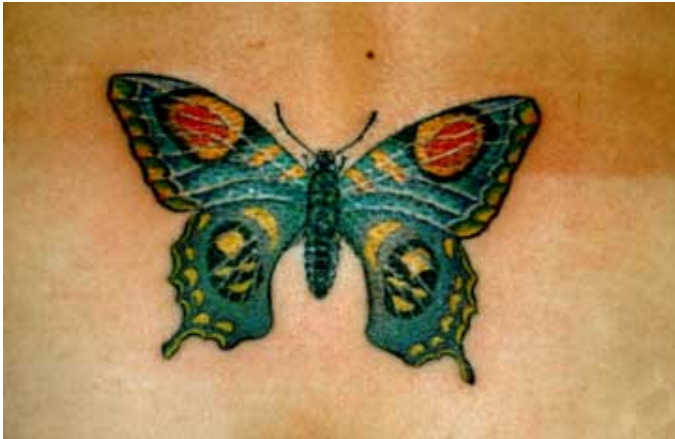

And the fact that finding that one high quality tattoo that you find absolutely gorgeous and unique and are going to live with for the rest of your life, is almost impossible online doesn't make things easier..

The sad truth is that most tattoo decision are made in a hurry while flipping through binders in a local tattoo studio.

That's not the way such an important, life-long decision should be made, and it often results in people regretting they ever got that darn tattoo!
