

License Generator Instructions

You have giveaway/resell rights to the License Generator, please pass on all the files included in the zip file so that the software works correctly.

There are 4 files in the zip file:

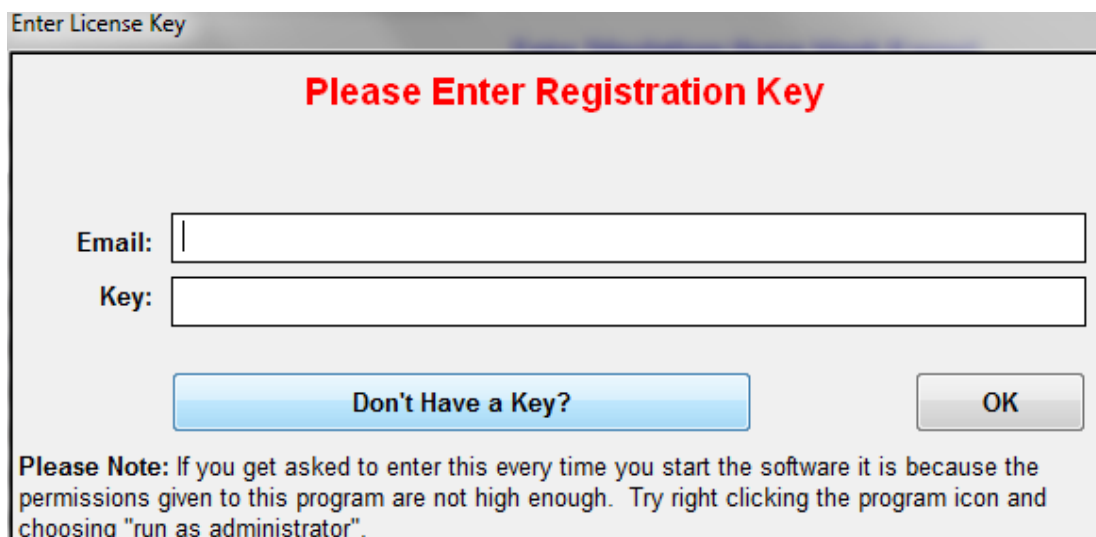

Instructions: You are reading them!

License: This will tell you what rights you have with this product licensegenerator: This is the software program, double click on it to launch licgen.dat: You dont need to touch this file, but make sure that it stays with the software.

Double click on file called licensegenerator to launch the software, if this is the first time tha you have used it you will need to enter the registration code. If you dont have one, click on the 'Dont Have a Key' button and a new window will open, just enter your name and email in the fields and click submit, you will then receive a confirmation email, when you have clicked the link to confirm, you will receive the code via email. Enter this code into the 'Key' field and hit OK.

A screenshot of a dialog box titled 'Enter License Key'. The dialog has a light gray background. At the top, in red text, it says 'Please Enter Registration Key'. Below this, there are two text input fields. The first is labeled 'Email:' and the second is labeled 'Key:'. Below the 'Email' field, there is a blue button labeled 'Don't Have a Key?'. To the right of this button is a gray button labeled 'OK'. At the bottom of the dialog, there is a 'Please Note:' section with text explaining that if the user is asked to enter this every time they start the software, it is because the permissions given to the program are not high enough, and they should try right-clicking the program icon and choosing 'run as administrator'.
