- B. Disable automatic checkpoints
- C. Set the AUTO_RECOVERY option in the INIT.ORA file to FALSE
- D. The automatic transaction protection and instance recovery are disabled by default
- E. The automatic transaction protection and instance recovery cannot be disabled

Answer: E

QUESTION: 2

You decide to use multiple redo log files and automatic redo log archiving.

How would you configure the disk subsystem to achieve the highest performance?

- A. Place the redo log files on the first physical volume, the archiving log files on the second physical volume, and the data files on the third physical volume.
- B. Place the redo log files and the archive log files on the same physical volume, and the data files on another physical volume.
- C. Place the redo log files on two separate physical volumes and alter these volumes in a round-robin fashion. Place the archive redo log files on a third physical volume and the data files on a fourth volume.
- D. Place the data files and the archive log files on the same physical volume and the redo log files on another physical volume.

Answer: C

QUESTION: 3

How does Oracle Parallel Server handle the case when one Oracle instance needs access to a data page modified and stored in a database buffer cache of another instance?

- A. Inconsistent data is returned and potential data corruption could occur.
- B. The page is locked in memory and on disk, and the modified data is copied to the requesting instance's System Global Area.
- C. The instance holding the modified page is required to flush it to disk, then allowing the requesting instance to read this page from disk.
- D. The instance holding the modified page is instructed to perform a checkpoint, then allowing the requesting instance to read this page from disk.

Answer: B

QUESTION: 4

To calculate the number of disk transfers per second per disk drive for a RAID 5 volume,

Which counters must you monitor?
