

Take flight with our new sportswear!

Why walk when you can fly? Whether you're a marathoner, mountain climber or weekend warrior, Active will make you stronger, faster, better than you were before. We use the most advanced microfiber technology to create fitness wear that's 1/2 the weight of traditional garments, for sports tops, shorts, and shoes that move with you instead of slowing you down. Our workout and sportswear will get you where you want to go, with comfort and style you've never experienced. "Get Active" and get ready to soar!
